CITY NEWS.

Grand jury meets today. The Democratic candidates are making a thorough canvass, and find everything to their taste.

-Licenses to marry were issued yes-terday to Wilson Thomas and Jane Applebury, Alex Peterson and Mary

The assets and liabilities of Ben C. Jolley & Co. cannot be stated definitely until Mr. Jolley's arrival next Monday.

-Providence Chapel has leased the tohogyan privileges for Friday, July 24th, beginning at 2 o'clock, and will use the proceeds to aid in building a more commodious place of worship.

-Those who have been banking on disaffection in the Democratic ranks in the First Ward will find themselves grievously mistaken. All is serene. -The Democratic Executive Committee experiences little trouble in raising an ample campaign fund. The merchants are determined that the ticket shall be elected by at least 2000 -Hodges, Gay and Taylor, who would surrender, and asking him to set their trial for 2 o'clock pm. Dolan, the young man who was so dangerously stabbed, is said to be in a fair way to recover. -Dunavant, Kelly & Piper advertise in the Nashville papers for 2000 men at $1 25 a day to work on the Memphis, Birmingham and Kansas City railroad between Birmingham and Warrior river.

-Lush Brown, who killed Oscar Caldwell over a game of craps on the Ensley place last month, was captured by the Sheriff of Marion on a telegram from Jailor Lawless and brought back to the city yesterday.

-An instance is recalled of a boy shot in the head here several years ago who lived eighteen months. Dr. Saunders is said to have had charge of the case, but the name of the boy cannot be remembered.

-The Pacific Express Company have moved into their new quarters on South Court street, which were especially fitted up for the purpose. It is one of the handsomest places in the city, with every facility for transacting their large and increasing business.

-If a man kicks or bests a dog wantonly he excites, and justly, the con-tempt of his neighbors. How much more worthy of that contempt cowardly ruffian who strikes and kicks a helpless woman, and one whom he believes to be enceinte. This is the light in which Mr. Hadden should view every such case of assault.

-The suit of Mrs. G. F. Blanz against H. Lindemann for damages was begun in the Circuit Court yester-day. Mr. Blanz rented a house from Lindemann, the closet being built over a deep vault of the old isshioned kind. The rotten floor gave way one day beneath the feet of Mrs. Blanz, who is a large, heavy lady, and she was precipitated into the vile depths be-

-It is generally believed that Mr. Hadden made a great mistake in permitting the young man Cotton to go free of any punishment. When he made the assault upon his mistress he did so in the most cowardly way, believing her to be enceinte, and knowing that in committing the assault there was risk of murder following upon it. He should have been punished for an assault with intent to kill. It is just barsly possible that Mr. Hadden's misspplied leniency msy lead to the com-mission of a capital offense before many months have passed away.

He Played Baseball

His Home Run Hit Captured the Heart of an Heiress.

It was a close and exciting game. Eight innings had been played, and the score stood s tie. Memphis had retired its opponent in the ninth inning without scoring. Memphis was at the bat. Two men were out. Two strikes had been called upon the man at the bat. The next ball pitched came straight toward him. Then it took a sudden curve. He swung his bat. Would he miss it? The excitement was painful. There was a quick. short stroke. Ah! he has hit the ball. Away fielder is chasing it. The spectators hold their breath. Suddenly there is one tumultuous shout. The ball has gone far over the head of the fielder, who is chasing it. Around the bases speeds the batter. He touches the home plate and the victory is won. Bouquets are showered upon him. He looks up just in time to see a lovely girl take a bunch of roses and throw them at his feet. As he gracefully picks them up their
